

ABOUT the AUTHORS

Jeannine and Keith Kaiser are two of the nation's top dating coaches. This dynamic couple has been guiding singles on how to find love since 2000. With thousands of their clients now married or in committed relationships, more and more singles are seeking the Kaiser's advice on finding healthy, passionate love.

The Kaisers are skilled dating coaches and have been leading seminars throughout California. Jeannine and Keith started their coaching practice with the intent of helping people find devoted and strong relationships like the one they share as a couple.

Jeannine and Keith both attended the University of San Francisco (USF) where they earned their bachelor's degrees in Organizational Behavior and Development. Keith went on to obtain his MBA at USF and Jeannine continued her education at the Coaches Training Institute where she earned her certificate in life coaching.

The Kaisers founded the Soul Mate Quest Seminar series in 2008 where they have been teaching their secrets to sold-out crowds of singles. Their fun, upbeat and interactive seminars have attracted the attention of many television and radio stations resulting in guest appearances on various shows.

The Kaisers are continuing to expand their seminar series across the United States to help more and more singles find and create the love relationship they desire.
